

Our fleet increased by 50% in 2022

Our exceptional fleet of 50 vehicles is equipped with industry leading technology to meet FORS Bronze, Euro 6 and ADR standards

Membership of 3 leading pallet networks

Our fleet is supplemented by membership of Palletline, UPN and The Hazchem Network

Bespoke ETA dashboard in real-time and exceptional customer service team

You can check your live delivery status at any time via your own personalised link and contact your customer service team for all your consignment enquiries

We carry hazardous pallets and parcels to every UK postcode

All processes are compliant to ADR regulations and legislation with fully trained ADR drivers and a dedicated Customer Service representative to manage Hazchem deliveries

Full artic loads to and from anywhere in the UK at competitive prices

We can offer a full day rate with a vehicle and driver, deliveries across the UK including warehouse relocations for 15-26 pallet consignments

Consolidated deliveries into all major RDCs including Amazon fulfilment centres

We can manage your deliveries to Regional Distribution Centres through 'booked' delivery slots which are required at these sites

ISO 45001 / 9001 / 14001 & 'FORS' certified

Our HSEQ integrated management systems include occupational health and safety management, quality management, environmental management and FORS

A complete offering of 'Final Mile' options

We offer an extensive suite of services included timed deliveries, full load deliveries, day rate hire, pallet removal, handballing of stock and tail lift deliveries

Very competitive rates for local deliveries

Our fleet expansion enables us to collect and deliver more pallets locally utilising our own vehicles at a reduced rate

Daily departures to Northern and Southern Ireland

Many customers find that once they have used us once we become their preferred haulier for non haz and hazardous deliveries to Ireland